

PRESS RELEASE – IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

DECEMBER 5, 2019

A BIG Christmas shopping day thank you from the Friends of Yeatman

The Friends of Yeatman Hospital set out its stall at the top end of Cheap Street as part of Sherborne's annual Christmas Shopping Fair and raised a staggering £900 in public donations.

Friends trustee Liz Turnbull commented;

"We had a fantastic day meeting lots of old friends and new faces who generously supported our charity throughout the day.

"I have to say a VERY special thanks to the staff of Greenslade Taylor Hunt who not only provided a fantastic hamper for us to raffle, plus a Lucky Dip, which ran out at mid-day because it was so popular, but they set up the stall for us and were there all day, despite having a very busy life. They also kept us warm with hot drinks and the occasional use of their loo.

"Being able to talk about the work of Yeatman Hospital and its significance to the town was an important part of the day for us.

"As with all donations, no matter how small, we are extremely grateful and appreciative of the public's generosity and warm affection towards the Yeatman"
