- Friends chairman thanks and congratulates Matron on new position

Following the announcement this week of the promotion of Anne Hiscock, Matron of Yeatman Hospital, to a new post within Dorset HealthCare Trust, David Hayes, Chairman of the Friends of The Yeatman Hospital said;

"On behalf of the Trustees, and all of the Friends of the Yeatman Hospital, I wish to express our grateful thanks and appreciation to Anne Hiscock for the support and commitment she has shown to the Friends during her time as Matron of the Yeatman Hospital.

"We wish her well in her new post as the "Freedom to Speak Up Guardian" within Dorset HealthCare Trust. We know she will continue enjoy further success in her distinguished career."
