

Trustee: Fiona Hartley

Fiona Hartley's professional career was in executive management, largely centred on education and children's services. She spent the first years of her career in secondary schools and a local education authority inspection advisory services.

Prior to moving to Sherborne in 2017, Fiona was a senior executive/ director in a leading Children's Services consultancy, where she provided advice, professional development and support in schools and local authorities

In addition to being involved in education, Fiona was also a member of a number of governing bodies, a trustee of an education charity and president of a national association of education professionals.

She is an enthusiastic cook, keen gardener and enjoys reading.

